TO JOIN THE GOOD ONES

'While we hope that our God will include us among the good ones, why should we not believe in God and the truth that has come to us?'. Because of these words, God gave them gardens under which rivers flow, where they will stay forever.

This is the reward of those who do good!
(5; 84, 85)

...include me among the good ones!
(12; 101)

...include me among the good ones.
(26; 83)

...admit me among the good servants.
(27; 19)

We include those who believe and do good deeds among the good ones.
(29; 9)

O tranquil soul! Return to your God, pleased and pleasing!
Join My good servants!
(89; 27,28, 29)

'10 GOOD DEEDS' TO JOIN THE GOOD ONES*

1

When you are greeted with a greeting, greet with a better one; or return the greeting exactly as it is. Surely God is the one who calculates everything.

(4; 86)

Didn't you see what a comparison God made? A good word is like a good tree, whose root is firmly fixed, and its branches are in the sky. It gives its fruit at all times, by the permission of its God. So God brings examples to the people, so that they can take advice. The example of a bad word is like a bad tree, which is torn out from the earth; it has no stability.

(14; 24, 25, 26)

Your God has commanded you to worship Him alone and to be kind to parents. If one or both of them reach old age with you and remain with you in their old age, do not say "Ugh!" to them, and do not rebuke them! Speak kind words to them!

(17; 23)

Serve God, and join not any partners with Him; and do good to your parents, relatives, orphans, those in need, neighbours who are near, and the far neighbours, and the near friend, and the traveler, and those who depend on you. God does not like who is snobbish and boastful.

(4; 36)

The servants of God Most Merciful are those who walk on the earth modestly, and when the ignorant address them, they say: 'Peace'.

(25; 63)

6

Those who donate in prosperity or in adversity; swallow their anger, and forgive people. God loves those who do good.

(3; 134)

Good and evil are not the same. You repel evil with the best thing. Then you will see that the person with whom you have enmity is as if he were a warm friend. Only those who are patient can attain the maturity of repelling this evil with goodness. Only those with great fortune will attain this. If a bad thought from the devil pushes you, seek refuge in God immediately. Because He is the One who hears and knows all things.

(41; 34, 35, 36)

God commands you to return the trusts to their owners and to judge with justice when you judge between people. What good advice does God give you thus? Indeed, God is the One who hears and sees all things.

(4; 58)

Those who listen to the word and follow the best of it. These are the people whom God has guided to the right path, and they are the ones with common sense.

(39; 18)

10

God will say: 'This is the day on which the truthful will profit from their truth. For them are gardens, with rivers flowing beneath their eternal home': God is pleased with them, and they are pleased with God.

This is the great success!

(5; 119)

Behaviours towards people

THE IMPORTANCE AND REWARD OF GOOD DEEDS

1

Surely; the Believers, the Jews, the Christians, and the Sabians, those who believe in God and the last day, and do good deeds shall have their reward with their God; there is no fear for them, and they will not grieve.

(2; 62)

As for those who believe and do good deeds, they are the people of heaven and will stay there forever.

(2; 82)

3

They said, 'No one will enter heaven except a Jew or a Christian.' This is their delusion. Say: 'Bring your evidence if you are truthful.' No, whoever does their job well and submits themselves to God, their reward is with his God. There is no fear for them, and they will not grieve.

(2; 111, 112)

God will give full rewards to those who believe and do good deeds. God does not love the oppressors.

(3; 57)

5

Their reward is forgiveness from their God and gardens beneath which rivers flow, wherein they will abide forever. How wonderful the wages of the workers!

(3; 136)

6

God gave them both the worldly reward and the best reward in the hereafter. Because God loves those who do good.

(3; 148)

7

God is never unjust in the least degree: If there is any good done, He multiplies it and gives a great reward from Himself.

(4; 40)

8

Whoever supports a good deed will also have a share in it. Whoever supports an evil deed will also have a share in it. God is the one who takes care of everything and rewards everything.

(4; 85)

9

And those who believe and do good deeds, We will admit them into gardens beneath which rivers flow, where they will abide forever. This is God's true promise. Who can be more truthful than God?

(4; 122)

10

The matter is not in your desires, nor in the desires of the People of the Book. The one who does evil will be punished for it, and he will not find for themselves, apart from God, either protector or helper. Whoever, male or female, believes and does good deeds, such people will enter heaven and will not be treated unjustly in the slightest.

(4; 123, 124)

11

God has promised those who believe and do good deeds: To them will be forgiveness and a great reward.

(5; 9)

12

The Believers, the Jews, the Sabian's, and the Christians, those who believe in God and the Last Day and do good deeds, there will be no fear for them, nor will they grieve.

(5; 69)

13

Those who believe and do good deeds - we do not burden anyone with anything beyond their capacity - they are the people of heaven; they will stay there forever.

(7; 42)

14

God has promised the believing men and believing women gardens beneath which rivers flow to abide therein forever, and beautiful dwellings in gardens of perpetual residence. And God's approval of them is greater than all of them. That is the great success.

(9; 72)

15

As for those who believe and do good deeds, their God will guide them to gardens of blessings beneath which rivers flow, because of their faith.

(10; 9)

16

Then after them, we placed you in their places in the world, to see how you would behave.

(10; 14)

17

There is a better reward and more for those who act kindly. There will be neither darkness nor disgrace on their faces. These are the people of heaven; they will stay there forever.

(10; 26)

18

However, those who are patient and do good deeds are not like this. For them is forgiveness and a great reward.

(11; 11)

19

As for those who believe and do good deeds and submit wholeheartedly to their God; These are the people of heaven, they will stay there forever.

(11; 23)

20

They are people who believe and whose hearts find peace in the remembrance of God. Know well that hearts find peace only by remembering God. Happiness and a beautiful future belong to those who believe and do good deeds.

(13; 28, 29)

21

Those who believed and did good deeds will be admitted to gardens beneath which rivers flow, where they will abide forever, by their God's permission. Their wish for life therein will be 'Peace'.

(14; 23)

22

The worldly goods you have with you will run out. What is with God is permanent. We will reward those who are patient with the best of what they did. Whoever does good, whether male or female, and is a believer, we will make them live a pleasant life in this world, and we will give them their reward according to the best of what they have done.

(16; 96, 97)

23

Because God is with those who protect themselves and those who do good.

(16; 128)

24

We created the things on earth to be an adornment for them, so that we could test which of them does the best work.

(18; 7)

25

Those who believed and did good deeds; Of course, we do not waste the reward of those who do a good job.

(18; 30)

26

'But whoever believes and does good deeds will have the best reward. We will tell them what is easy from Our command, and We will not oblige them to do difficult things.'

(18; 88)

27

As for those who believe and do good deeds, their abode is the paradise of Firdevs. They will remain there forever. They never want to leave there.

(18; 107, 108)

28

However, those who repent, believe and do good deeds will enter heaven and will not be treated unjustly.

(19; 60)

29

God increases the guidance of those who follow the path. Permanent good deeds are better with your God both in terms of reward and destination!

(19; 76)

30

For those who believe and do good deeds, God will create love in the hearts and make them loved by everyone.

(19; 96)

31

And whoever comes to Him as a believer who has done good deeds, for them there are high degrees: Gardens of Eden with rivers flowing under them. They stay there forever. This is the reward of those who are purified!

(20; 75, 76)

32

And I am very forgiving to those who repent and believe and do good deeds and then come to the right path.

(20; 82)

33

Whoever does good deeds out of faith fears neither oppression nor violation of her rights.

(20; 112)

34

Now, whoever does good deeds and is a believer, their work will not be ungrateful, we are the ones who write down their work.

(21; 94)

35

God will admit those who believe and do good deeds into gardens beneath which rivers flow. Surely God does what He wants.

(22; 14)

36

For those who believe and do good deeds there is forgiveness and abundant sustenance.

(22; 50)

37

On that day, the sovereignty belongs to God. He judges between them. Those who believe and do good deeds are in heavens of blessings.

(22; 56)

38

But those who repent and believe and do good deeds, God will change their evil deeds into good deeds. God is Forgiving, Merciful. Whoever repents and does good deeds, will return to God as a person accepted.

(25; 70, 71)

39

Whoever brings good, there is someone better than it. And on that day, they will be safe and free from fear.

(27; 89)

40

But whoever repents, believes and does good deeds, they can be among those who are saved.

(28; 67)

41

As for those who believe and do good deeds, we will surely remove their evil deeds and reward them with the best of what they did.

(29; 7)

42

We include those who believe and do good deeds among the good ones.

(29; 9)

43

We will place those who believe and do good deeds in high rooms in heaven, beneath which rivers flow. They will remain there forever. How wonderful the wages of the workers! Those who are patient and rely on their God.

(29; 58, 59)

44

Those who believe and do good deeds will be rejoiced in a garden full of flowers and rivers.

(30; 15)

45

That God may reward from His grace those who believe and do good deeds. Indeed, He does not love the ungrateful.

(30; 45)

46

There are heavens full of blessings for those who believe and do good deeds. They will remain there forever. This is God's true promise. He is superior, the possessor of judgment and wisdom.

(31; 8, 9)

47

Whoever acts well and submits himself to God has grasped the strongest handle. The end of matters returns to God.

(31; 22)

48

As for those who believe and do good deeds, they will be hosted in heavens worthy of rest, in return for their deeds.

(32; 19)

49

He has determined everything in a clear Book, so that He may reward those who believe and do good deeds. For them there is forgiveness and good provision.

(34; 4)

50

Neither your wealth nor your children will bring you any closeness to Us. But those who believe and do good deeds are different. They will be rewarded many times more than what they have done, and they will be in safety and peace in the palaces.

(34; 37)

51

This is how we reward those who do good.

(37; 80)

52

Or shall we treat those who believe and do good deeds as those who cause mischief in the earth? Or shall we keep those who are protected like those who go astray?

(38; 28)

53

As for those who bring the truth and confirm it: they are the ones who are protected. They will have everything they wish for with their God. This is the reward of those who do good. So that God may remove from them the worst of what they have done and reward them with the best of what they have done.

(39; 33, 34, 35)

54

'Whoever does evil will be recompensed for it, but whoever does good, male or female, having faith, will enter Paradise, where they will be given provision without account.'

(40; 40)

55

The blind and the seeing are not the same. Those who believe and do good deeds are not the same as those who do evil. How little you think!

(40; 58)

56

As for those who believe and do good deeds; There is an uninterrupted reward for them.

(41; 8)

57

Whoever does good, it benefits themselves, and whoever does evil, it is harmful to themselves. Your God is not unjust to His servants.

(41; 46)

58

Whoever does a good deed will benefit themselves, and whoever does evil will benefit themselves. In the end, you will be returned to your God.

(45; 15)

59

Those who believe and do good deeds; their God will admit them into His mercy.
This is the obvious success.
(45; 30)

60

There is nothing for person but to work. And their work will be seen soon. Then it will be given to them in full. And in the end, we will reach your God.
(53; 39, 40, 41, 42)

61

The day He gathers you for the meeting is the day of deception. Whoever believes in God and does good deeds, God will remove their sins from them and admit them into gardens beneath which rivers flow, wherein they abide forever.
That is the great success.

(64; 9)

62

He created death and life to test which of you would do better. He is the almighty, the forgiving.

(67; 2)

63

However, there is an uninterrupted reward for those who believe and do good deeds.

(84; 25)

64

And for those who believe and do good deeds, there are gardens beneath which rivers flow. This is the great success.

(85; 11)

65

Except for those who believe and do good deeds. There is an uninterrupted reward for them.

(95; 6)

66

Those who believe and do good deeds are the best of people. Their reward from their God will be eternal paradise; Aden beneath which rivers flow, where they will abide forever. God was pleased with them, and they were pleased with Him.
This is reserved for those who respect their God.

(98; 7, 8)

67

On that Day, people will appear before the Divine Court in separate groups, and their deeds will be shown to them. And whoever has done even the weight of an atom will see it.

(99; 6, 7)

68

By the Age, human is in loss. But those who believe and do good deeds, and advise one another to the truth, and advise one another to patience, are not in loss.

(103; 1, 2, 3)

THOSE WHO HAVE DONE GOOD DEEDS

Until when death comes to one of them, he says, 'My God, bring me back!' 'So that I may do good in the world which I have left.' 'No, this is his word.' Before them is a barrier until the Day they are resurrected. When the Trumpet is blown, on that Day there will be no lineage among them, nor will people ask each other about their lineage. Those whose scales of deeds are heavy, are the ones who are successful.

(23; 99, 100, 101, 102)

THOSE WHO HAVE NOT DONE GOOD DEEDS

The person who is given his book in his right hand says, "Take my book and read it. Indeed, I was already expecting to face my reckoning."

This person is now in a life to be happy with.

(69; 19, 20, 21)

WEIGHTING GOOD DEEDS

On that day the scales will be true, and those whose scales of good deeds are heavy are the ones who are successful.

(7;8)

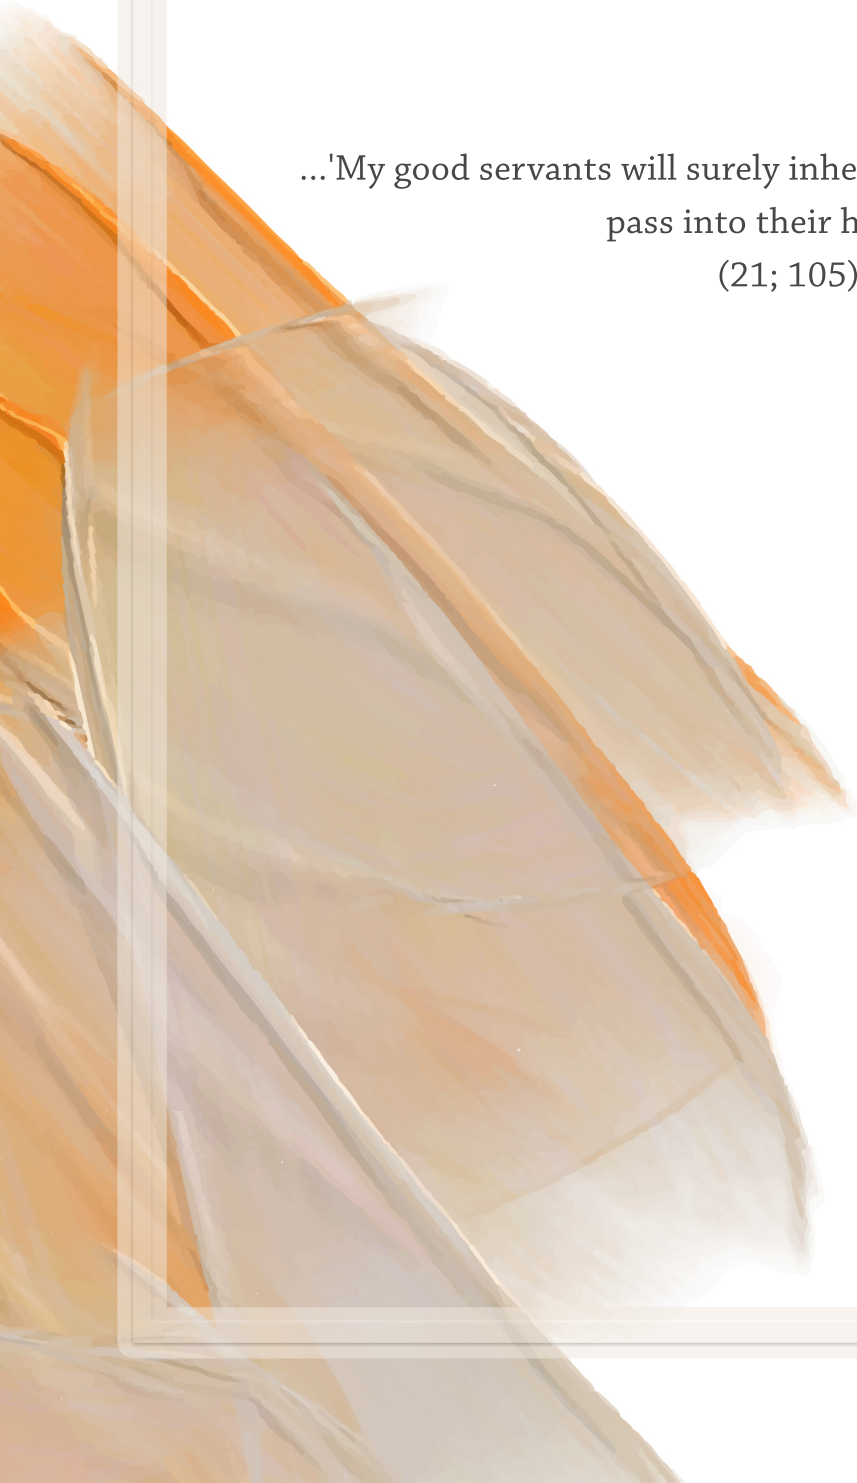

We will set up scales of justice for the Day of Resurrection. No injustice will be done to anyone. We will bring back whatever a person has done, even if it is the weight of a mustard seed. And

We suffice as Accountants.

(21; 47)

Whoever's scales are heavy will have a pleasant life.

(101; 6, 7)

...'My good servants will surely inherit the earth; this land will pass into their hands'...
(21; 105)
